CPACharge, an online payment solution developed specifically for CPA firms, announced a new partnership with the Colorado Society for CPAs. This new program will provide members the exposure and resources to connect CPAs personally and meaningfully to all aspects of the profession including over 1,500 CPE course offerings, member networking, course offerings, and on-demand e-learning selections.

The Colorado Society of CPAs began in 1904 with a mission to continue professional education and elevate the CPA brand by positioning CPAs to have success in the accounting industry. COCPA (Colorado Society of CPAs) has over 6,800 professionals. 40% of the professionals apart from COCPA are CEOs, 66% are in public accounting practices, and 51% are directors or managers. COCPA remains the only statewide, non-profit, professional association dedicated to CPAs in Colorado as the industry shifts each year.

“The opportunity to partner with an impactful organization such as CPACharge and create better resources for our members is a priority we had to take advantage of,” said Mary E. Medley, Chief Executive Officer of COCPA. “CPACharge embodies the
