

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

the middle of next week, with winds that could reach over 120 MPH.

Isaac M. O'Bannon • Sep. 23, 2022

Tropical Depression Number 9 has formed in the Caribbean Sea, according to the National Hurricane Center. The storm is expected to increase in strength into a tropical storm later today, and then a hurricane. When it does so, it will assume the

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Businesses along the western coast of Florida should prepare as the storm approaches.

“The depression is expected to approach Jamaica and the Cayman islands as an intensifying tropical storm... then is forecast to approach western Cuba and enter the southeastern Gulf of Mexico... Interests in Cuba and along the Eastern Gulf Coast of the United States should closely monitor this system.” ~ NHC Advisory.

NHC tracking plot for Tropical Depression 9 / Ian:

https://www.nhc.noaa.gov/refresh/graphics_at4+shtml/090354.shtml?cone#contents

Small Business • Taxes

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved