BerryDunn, a full-service assurance, tax, and consulting firm, has opened a new office in San Juan, Puerto Rico. As part of the firm's continuing expansion beyond the continental U.S., the office serves as a home for Puerto Rico-based employees and is a representation of the firm's strong, long-term commitment to the island and clients in Puerto Rico and other U.S. territories.

Eduardo Daranyi, a Principal in BerryDunn's Medicaid Practice Group, notes, "As we begin to look at a growing number of team members supporting our work with Puerto Rico, it feels right to create a home base and offer the support the team needs. Our continued engagement with potential clients in Puerto Rico and additional U.S. territories signifies we are there to stay and look forward to building client relationships that will last a long time, one of the main tenets of our firm."

The office is an important step for the team that has been operating in San Juan since 2019 and is part of one of the main sectors driving growth in the region, offering jobs and opportunities for professionals in the area. Today, the firm is primarily
