“Like BDO, the professionals at AdaptaLogix are passionate about creating a competitive advantage for their clients through a holistic, industry-centric lens. Their approach to building businesses rooted in purpose is fueled by a passion for helping pharma and biotech organizations that work tirelessly to change patients’ lives,” said Wayne Berson, CEO of BDO USA. “AdaptaLogix’s unique approach to solving client challenges will help BDO Digital accelerate the future of healthcare, and we are happy to welcome their team to our people-first culture at BDO.”

Founded in 2016, AdaptaLogix offers NetSuite-based pharmaceutical, biotech, and medical device ERP and material requirements planning (MRP) solutions for mid-market and pre-revenue pharmaceutical companies. AdaptaLogix fulfills a unique need within the pharmaceutical industry by offering scalable and customizable NetSuite solutions for both small, high-growth companies and larger commercial operations featuring global footprints. AdaptaLogix is the only Solutions Provider with a complete GMP compliant manufacturing system built within NetSuite.

“As the fastest growing NetSuite Solutions Partner of any industry, we help equip pharmaceutical and biotech innovators with resources that help them do their jobs better, which is exactly why we’re joining BDO,” said James Neal, president and managing partner of AdaptaLogix. “Our NetSuite experience combined with BDO Digital’s resources and national footprint will add significant value for companies that have been previously underserved by other ERP offerings.”

AdaptaLogix is headquartered in Dublin, Ohio. Their team will join BDO Digital’s Enterprise Business Applications solution group
