Webinars

The webinar will discuss the benefits of providing clients with a full solution to implement the new lease standard whether they have one or thousands of leases.

Isaac M. O'Bannon • Nov. 02, 2022

LeaseCrunch LLC, a lease accounting software company, has announced it is partnering with Rea & Associates, a top 100 public accounting firm, to bring a webinar to CPA firms. The webinar will discuss the benefits of providing clients with a full solution to implement the new lease standard whether they have one or thousands of leases. It will take place on Wednesday, November 9, at 1:00 pm CST.

This webinar covers how software can help clients smoothly transition to the new lease accounting standards. It will be moderated by Joel Hess, principal at LeaseCrunch, and presented by Jess Vento, senior director of accounting, client success, LeaseCrunch, and Jim Suttie, principal at Rea & Associates.

“We are excited to share how Rea & Associates have worked with LeaseCrunch to provide lease accounting software to their clients,” states Vento. “Clients expect CPA firms to have a deep knowledge of new accounting standards and provide guidance upon implementation, and Rea & Associates is a great example of a firm understanding their clients’ needs and finding the right solutions to fill those needs.”

Registration for the webinar is available at <https://www.leasecrunch.com/case-study-webinar-ra>.
