What are you doing to make a difference in the profession, your community, the world?

My pursuit of a career in the accounting profession started with a desire to help people. I am grateful that every day I get to fulfill that passion, with clients but also the greater Washington professional community. It is an honor to serve as the Treasurer for the Economic Development Alliance of Skagit County (EDASC). EDASC is an important organization in the Skagit business community that assists existing and prospective Skagit companies by identifying incentives and access to capital, permitting, research, workforce training, and much more! I am thrilled to be part of
