

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

iQ

Tax and accounting firm professionals who participated in the Wolters Kluwer annual industry trends survey indicated that responding to constantly evolving federal and...

Nov. 09, 2022

Wolters Kluwer

During this week's CCH Connections: User Conference in Tampa, Florida, Wolters Kluwer Tax & Accounting announced that with its newest release of CCH Axxess iQ, users can now quickly identify and notify clients when they are impacted by evolving federal and state legislative changes, explain how those changes will impact their tax returns and their tax savings, and provide strategic advice and recommend next steps.

Tax Pros Say Responding to Evolving Legislation Is a Top Challenge: CCH Axxess iQ Can Help

Tax and accounting firm professionals who participated in the Wolters Kluwer annual industry trends survey indicated that responding to constantly evolving

federal and state legislative changes was among the top three challenges they faced

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

legislation changes

- Users can then leverage automatically generated communications to engage and strengthen relationships with clients by offering strategic advice and recommended next steps

“With the accelerating pace of regulatory change, keeping up with evolving tax codes can feel like a full-time job,” said Nate Brown, Vice President, Firm Management, Wolters Kluwer Tax & Accounting North America. For firms that serve clients in multiple states, it can feel impossible to stay current. CCH Axxess iQ turns that challenge into an opportunity by proactively notifying firms when specific clients have been impacted by a state or federal tax change. Tax professionals can then focus their time and expertise on strengthening client relationships and expanding revenue – by advising clients how to best address the evolving tax code changes that are most likely to impact them.”

Professionals who want to learn more about CCH Axxess iQ can register for a live demonstration and sign up to receive the latest news about CCH Axxess iQ.

Accounting • Software • Taxes

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved