Oracle NetSuite has launched its new NetSuite MyLearn, a digital learning platform that provides access to live training and on-demand modules in a personalized and engaging environment. Available to NetSuite Learning Cloud Support customers, NetSuite MyLearn helps users accelerate NetSuite implementations, simplify employee training, and identify new features and use cases to optimize NetSuite. An introductory version is also available at no cost.

“At NetSuite we are committed to helping our customers gain the cloud skills and knowledge they need to increase productivity and grow revenue,” said David Rodman, senior vice president of customer success, Oracle NetSuite. “NetSuite MyLearn is the latest example of our focus in this area and by providing a personalized and intuitive learning experience, it will help our customers grow their skillset and unlock the full potential of NetSuite.”
