AuditDashboard, a client collaboration platform for accounting professionals and their clients, has completed its 7th SOC 2 Type 2 audit for the period of review from February 2022 to January 2023, as it continues expanding its global reach and offering for enterprise customers.

The independent attestation affirms AuditDashboard's information security practices, policies, procedures, and operations meet the rigorous System and Organization Controls (SOC) standards established by the Association of International Certified Public Accountants (AICPA).

“This milestone validates our ongoing commitment to data security and compliance with critical standards to mitigate cybersecurity threats,” says Michael McKinnon, Vice President & Co-founder of AuditDashboard. “Our SOC 2 audit has been integral to our annual Trust & Security program for nearly a decade.”
