FORVIS has expanded its nonprofit advisory services practice to the Arizona market with the addition of Pete Finley.

Finley has more than 25 years of experience in tax, audit, and nonprofit executive leadership. Prior to joining the firm, Finley worked as chief operating officer for Make-A-Wish International, supporting affiliates in over 50 countries, and held chief financial officer roles for Childhelp and the Association for Child Development.

“It has been a pleasure collaborating and supporting amazing nonprofits with dedicated leaders over the years,” Finley said. “I’m energized by the opportunity to be a thought partner alongside area nonprofit organizations facing numerous headwinds today and who could use additional capacity and insights.”
