

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us services that should have been free.

May. 24, 2023

By Leada Gore, al.com (TNS)

Keep an eye out for a letter from “Intuit Multistate Settlement Administrator”—it’s likely a settlement check.

Eligible recipients will start receiving checks this month as part of a 2022 \$141 million settlement stemming from allegations Intuit, maker of popular tax-filing software TurboTax, charged people for services that should have been free.

More than 4.4 million taxpayers are eligible under the terms of the settlement by

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Checks will continue to be mailed through the end of May. Because of mail time, claim administrators said it may take until early June for some to receive their payments.

You can go here to see more on the settlement.

©2023 Advance Local Media LLC. Visit al.com. Distributed by Tribune Content Agency LLC.

IRS • Taxes • Technology

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved