Email alerts give LeaseCrunch users the flexibility to customize when they receive notifications about significant lease dates. Furthermore, users can designate the recipients of these alerts, whether as an individual user or a specific group within the organization.

“Email alerts are a simple yet effective way of notifying individuals about major lease events,” says Timothy Kohler, chief product officer at LeaseCrunch. “By being able to set up email alerts in minutes across your entire lease portfolio, we aim to meet the needs of our clients and prospects, making lease accounting and management simpler and more streamlined.”

LeaseCrunch has also introduced additional in-app tips to facilitate lease accounting implementation. These helpful prompts and insights provide users with guidance and solutions as they enter lease information, ensuring a smoother and more efficient process.
