Baird, Cotter & Bishop, which was founded in 1924 in Cadillac, offers a full range of public accounting services, including auditing, compilation, review, payroll services, tax planning, tax compliance, estate planning and estate tax compliance work. The firm concentrates heavily in government audits in Michigan—it has audited more than 100 local units of government over the past two years.

“We’re thrilled to join UHY as it allows us to provide expanded services and resources to better serve our clients and additional opportunities for our employees,” said Trent Mulder, managing partner of Baird, Cotter & Bishop. “There is great chemistry between the two firms and a strong alignment and vision for the future.”

The Cadillac and Traverse City offices will join UHY’s Great Lakes region, which includes more than 600 employees located in seven offices in Ann Arbor, Detroit, Dowagiac, Farmington Hills, Kalamazoo, Port Huron, and Sterling Heights.
