

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us development of women as leaders.

Isaac M. O'Bannon • Aug. 28, 2023

The Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accountants (MassCPAs), in partnership with the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) Women's Initiatives Executive Committee, today announced the seven honorees of the 2023 Women to Watch Awards. The awards recognize women who have made outstanding contributions to the accounting profession, their communities, their firms or companies and to the development of women as leaders.

A panel of judges selected the seven Massachusetts recipients and awards are presented in two categories: Emerging Leaders (professionals with fewer than 15 years of experience) and Experienced Leaders (more than 15 years in the field). Award winners will be honored on October 26 at MassCPAs Women's Leadership Summit at the Westin Hotel in Waltham.

"MassCPAs takes immense pride in recognizing these remarkable women for their outstanding contributions to both their peers and communities, as well as their significant impact on the accounting profession," said Amy Pitter, president and CEO of MassCPAs. "We are so excited to come together to honor this extraordinary group of women who are reshaping and redefining the landscape of leadership!"

The 2023 Women to Watch Award winners are (in alphabetical order):

Emerging Leaders:

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Experienced Leaders:

Jessica Clancy, CPA, managing director, tonneson + co

Courtney McFarland, CPA, MSA, 340B ACE, partner, AAFCPAs

Kathy Parker, CPA, principal, BerryDunn

To learn more about the 2023 Women to Watch Award winners, visit masscpas.org/winners2023.

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved