TaxDome Unveils IRS Integration for Streamlined Transcript Retrieval

This update allows TaxDome users to swiftly access IRS transcripts directly from their workspace, eliminating the need to navigate the IRS website.

Isaac M. O'Bannon • Sep. 12, 2023

TaxDome, a provider of tax and accounting practice management solutions, has launched an advanced IRS integration feature. This update allows TaxDome users to swiftly access IRS transcripts directly from their workspace, eliminating the need to navigate the IRS website. These transcripts, pivotal in the world of accounting, represent the official data that the IRS maintains for taxpayers and businesses.

While accountants and tax professionals have previously waded through the IRS portal, TaxDome's integration expedites and simplifies this process, allowing tax professionals to concentrate on their primary objective: serving their clients.

After receiving glowing reviews and amassing over 10,000 transcripts in a brief beta period of just three days, the integration is poised to become available to TaxDome Pro users at no additional cost on September 11, 2023. Several standout features include:

- Alerts for Changes: Users are promptly notified when new transcripts exhibit differences from previous versions.
- Time Efficiency: Login information is securely stored, reducing redundant steps and saving valuable time.
- Straightforward Setup: Users can quickly integrate this feature through their Settings tab.

“Our journey to becoming an official provider for the IRS has been one of collaboration, dedication, and unwavering commitment to serving our clients first and foremost,” said Ilya Radzinsky, co-founder of TaxDome. “This milestone isn’t just about a top-tier feat ure; it’s a testament to our relentless drive to elevate the user experience. The positive feedback from our early access users reinforces our belief that when we put our clients at the heart of our innovations, success naturally follows.”

This enhancement not only aligns with the IRS’s ambition to modernize their IT infrastructure but also underscores TaxDome’s commitment to facilitating tax and accounting professionals, allowing them to prioritize client service. A cornerstone of TaxDome’s ongoing success lies in its strong emphasis on customer feedback and continuous product development, setting them apart in a competitive landscape. Furthermore, TaxDome’s prestigious status as an official IRS provider, earned after a rigorous approval journey, exemplifies its influential stature and unwavering commitment within the tax ecosystem.
