200 team members will join Armanino.

Jason Bramwell • Sep. 26, 2023

Top 20 accounting firm Armanino, based in San Ramon, CA, said on Tuesday it is merging with Garden City, NY-based CPA and advisory firm Janover. Financial terms of the deal were not disclosed.

The transaction is expected to close on Nov. 1. Once completed, Janover's 20-plus partners and more than 200 team members will join Armanino. Garden City will be Armanino's second location in New York; the firm has had an office in New York City since 2021.

As soon as I met the Janover leadership team, I knew that they'd be a great fit for Armanino, and we couldn't be more excited to welcome them to the team," Matt Armanino, CEO of Armanino, said in a press release. "Their highly strategic approach, deep expertise, and shared values resonate greatly with our organization, and I look forward to seeing the success they deliver for our clients under the Armanino name moving forward."

Founded in 1938 by Richard Janover, the firm delivers a wide range of tax, accounting, and consulting services to clients that include privately held businesses and high-net-worth individuals. Janover's core industries it serves include real estate, professional services, commercial business, construction, cannabis, manufacturing and distribution, and financial services, among others. It is the 106th biggest public accounting firm in the U.S. by revenue, pulling in $45.5 million during its most recent fiscal year.
