IRIS Firm Management is a comprehensive, cloud-native product that provides a modern, scalable platform with a streamlined, intuitive user interface to offer greater data visibility across the firm. IRIS says this will empower firms to run their business proactively with robust reporting functionalities to drive informed decision-making. IRIS customers will benefit from time and billing management, client management, reporting and analytics, and secure data storage from a centralized platform.

“As we unveil IRIS Firm Management, we’re not only addressing the dynamic industry challenges but upholding our commitment to being a trusted partner to accounting firms,” said Jim Dunham, President and General Manager of IRIS Americas. “With a focus on unified, cloud-native solutions with robust APIs, IRIS Firm Management provides our customers with the capabilities they need to navigate the modern complexities and drive sustained growth.”
