need us—even when they don't think they do. In other words, we anticipate potential issues and help develop solutions before they become headaches for our clients and their businesses. I am excited to be able to now deliver an even greater suite of services to our clients as a part of UHY."

Michael Mahoney, Northeast Region managing director at UHY, said about the merger, "As we looked to re-enter Massachusetts, it was important to team up with a local firm that has values similar to UHY's. I knew when I met with David and Mike, as well as the leadership team at Paresky Flitt, that there was a clear connection between our firms and our service philosophies. We are thrilled to now have a presence in Massachusetts with a reputable firm that takes client service as seriously as we do and is ranked as one of the largest accounting firms in Massachusetts. I can't wait to start working with this talented group of professionals."
