Have you been over to the Financial Accounting Standards Board's (FASB) website lately? If not, it has a new look.

The revamped FASB website—launched by the Financial Accounting Foundation (FAF), the body that oversees the FASB and the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB)—features streamlined navigation, a simpler menu structure, more attractive and intuitive design, a stronger search algorithm, and more prominent placement of the most important information stakeholders are looking to find.

The websites for the GASB and the FAF will also have a new similar look in the coming weeks. A cross-organizational team worked throughout most of 2023 to create the new sites, according to the FAF. The group included representatives from
