imperative for competitive organizations globally and that's particularly true within the accounting and finance profession," says Michael M. Grant, AICPA & CIMA's senior director – Learning. "The goal was to establish a future focused framework of essential principles, based on industry trends and member driven feedback, required to transform our learning portfolio and foster a best in class learning ecosystem that elevates our member experience for learning, upskilling, and behavior change for business impact."

Entries were evaluated by a panel of veteran, independent senior industry experts, Brandon Hall Group analysts, and executives based upon these criteria: fit the need, program design, functionality, innovation, and overall measurable benefits.

Excellence Award winners are scheduled to be honored at Brandon Hall Group's HCM Excellence Conference, February 13-15, 2024, at the Hilton West Palm Beach, Florida.

"In our 30th year, the Excellence in Technology Awards continue to showcase the best innovations in learning, talent management, talent acquisition, HR, workforce management, and sales enablement technologies. We are proud to receive applications from a diverse range of organizations globally, reflecting the ever-evolving landscape of technology solutions" said Brandon Hall Group Chief Operating Officer Rachel Cooke, leader of the Excellence Awards program.
