Jersey-based firms merge later this spring.

Jason Bramwell • Feb. 01, 2024

Roseland, NJ-based tax and advisory practice Magone & Co. has signed an agreement to merge with Hackensack, NJ-based CPA firm Wurdemann, Pinto & Co. on May 1.

Financial terms of the deal weren't disclosed. The combined firm will employ approximately 40 people.

“What drew us to Wurdemann, Pinto was the firm’s similar company culture and business philosophy, as well as their complementary strengths in client accounting services and advisory services for C-suite executives. We are like-minded in our client-centric approach, and we’re excited for the opportunities that lie ahead in 2024,” said Managing Partner Nick Magone in a written statement.

Wurdemann partner Steve Pinto added, “Nick’s firm has proven expertise in
