

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

17 to meet various tax filing and payment deadlines.

Feb. 05, 2024

By Katelyn Washington, Kiplinger Consumer News Service (TNS)

The IRS has granted federal tax relief for taxpayers impacted by severe storms in parts of Rhode Island. The relief includes extensions for various tax payment and filing deadlines. Individuals and businesses affected by the severe storms now have until June 17 to meet certain tax obligations.

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Rhode Island tax deadline extensions

As a result of the severe storms, the following federal tax deadlines for affected taxpayers in Rhode Island have been extended until June 17, 2024:

- Individual income tax returns and payments normally due on April 15, 2024.
- 2023 quarterly estimated income tax payments normally due on Jan. 16, 2024, and estimated tax payments normally due on April 15, 2024.
- Quarterly payroll and excise tax returns normally due on Jan. 31 and April 30, 2024.
- Calendar-year partnership and S corporation returns normally due on March 15, 2024.
- Calendar-year corporation and fiduciary returns and payments normally due on April 15, 2024.
- Calendar-year tax-exempt organization returns normally due on May 15, 2024.

Eligible Rhode Island taxpayers also have until June 17, 2024, to meet the following deadlines.

- 2023 estimated income tax payments normally due on Sept. 15, 2023.
- Quarterly payroll and excise tax returns normally due on Oct. 31, 2023.

Rhode Island storm-affected areas

In Rhode Island, only Providence County taxpayers are currently eligible for federal tax relief. However, additional areas might be added in the future. The IRS's disaster relief page contains the most up-to-date list of qualifying counties.

What if you live outside of the designated disaster areas? If you live outside the federally designated disaster areas but have records in an affected area that impact your ability to file your taxes, you should contact the IRS at 866-562-5227 to see if

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Are Rhode Island state tax deadlines extended?

No state tax deadline extensions have been announced for Rhode Island. However, taxpayers affected by severe storms can reach out to the Rhode Island Department of Revenue to see if tax relief is available.

All contents copyright 2024 The Kiplinger Washington Editors Inc. Distributed by Tribune Content Agency LLC.

Income Tax • IRS • Payroll • Small Business • Taxes

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved