nonprofit organizations throughout Central Alabama.

“Joining Jackson Thornton puts us in a great position to expand and help our clients achieve their goals,” said Moreland, a partner with MST. “Our mission has always been to develop client relationships based on trust and personal attention. Jackson Thornton has the same philosophy, while providing hundreds of years of collective experience, and we look forward to enhancing our practices together.”

Established in 1919, Jackson Thornton was ranked fifth on Business Alabama’s 2024 Top Rank listing of Alabama’s largest accounting firms, and last year, Jackson Thornton was named a “Best Company to Work For” by Business Alabama. The firm has five locations in Alabama: Montgomery, Auburn, Dothan, Prattville, and Wetumpka.
