

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us that he withheld from his employees' paychecks.

Isaac M. O'Bannon • Mar. 26, 2024

A Florida man has been sentenced to 30 months in prison for failing to pay over taxes that he withheld from his employees' paychecks.

According to court documents and evidence presented in court, Timothy Meade, of Fort Myers, Florida, operated a prison phone call service under several business names. From 2011 through 2021, he withheld taxes from his employees' paychecks but did not pay over to the IRS the full amount of the taxes he withheld. He also did not pay the business' portion of his employees' Social Security and Medicare taxes.

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Acting Deputy Assistant Attorney General Stuart M. Goldberg of the Justice Department's Tax Division, U.S. Attorney Roger B. Handberg for the Middle District of Florida and Acting Special Agent in Charge Lani Rosado-Espinal of IRS Criminal Investigation's Tampa Field Office made the announcement.

IRS Criminal Investigation investigated the case.

Trial attorneys Brian Flanagan and Curtis Weidler of the Justice Department's Tax Division and Assistant U.S. Attorney Yolande Viacava for the Middle District of Florida are prosecuting the case.

Payroll • Payroll Taxes

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved