The field of 64 has shrunk to 16 in the quest to win the 2024 Accountant Bracket Challenge, presented by Accounting High, as voting for the third-round matchups starts on Thursday.

You have through the Easter weekend to cast your votes on the third-round action to determine who advances to the Elite Eight, which begins on April 2.

Only two of the four No. 1 seeds remain, as Relay was defeated in the second round by No. 8 seed Ignition in the Money Bracket and Bridging the Gap was bested by No. 8 seed Scaling New Heights in the Conference Bracket. And in the battle of accounting software giants, No. 2 seed QuickBooks easily defeated No. 7 seed Xero by a vote score
