Atul Dubey.

“Serving over 800 customers in 40 countries, OneSumX for FRR has a significant global role in the financial services ecosystem,” Dubey commented. “I look forward to working with Karen and the talented team to drive product enhancement and innovation, delivering value to our clients, partners and regulators.”

Dubey joined Wolters Kluwer in 2016 as Chief Strategy Officer, with a strong background in institutional banking, having held senior leadership roles at Citigroup, S&P Global and Booz Allen.

Martin O'Malley, CEO of Wolters Kluwer Legal & Regulatory: “I am grateful for Atul’s incisive leadership, which has seen our solutions, services and customers thrive during a period of unparalleled transformation for our industry. At the same time, I am excited to welcome Suzanne to our division. Her deep industry expertise, commitment to innovation and experience in creating vibrant team cultures will continue to push our U.S. business to new heights.”

Konstance held leadership positions in Wolters Kluwer for eight years, in which she built a strong track record in product management, strategy and go-to-market. She most recently served as Vice President & Segment Leader of Lien Solutions for the Wolters Kluwer Compliance Solutions business unit – a part of the company’s Financial & Corporate Compliance (FCC) division. She successfully engaged in launching AI-enabled products to transform the business while managing to achieve an above-market growth rate. Prior to joining Wolters Kluwer, Konstance held
